Index

Access to tools, 199-216
Accountability, 23, 304
Action, efficient, 236
Activities, 117, 253, 273, 303
Advanced placement, 61
Advisory group, Pittsburgh, 178
Affective domain, 191, 292
Alienation, of man, 45, 204
American Industries course, 223
Applied arts, 233
Applied learning, 237
Applied technology, 266
Area vocational centers, Maine, 130
Area vocational concept, 65
Articulation, Pittsburgh, 188
Assembly programs, 105
Attendance, New York City, 175
Awareness, career, 84

Behavior—of student, 208 of technological systems, 291, 303
Behavioral goals, 257
Behavioral outcomes, Maryland Plan, 283
Bureaucracy, and technology, 298
Busing, 68

Career clusters, 185
Career decision-making, 86, 111
Career development, 73, 222
Career education, 30, 71, 74, 102, 112, 257
  elements, 76
  exploration, 172
  and general education goals, 83 goals, Pittsburgh, 184 and industrial arts, 100, 110-119
  interests, 99
Career studies, development of, 84
Careers, and education, 28
CCEM (Comprehensive Career Education Model), 75 objectives, compared to industrial arts, 82 Change—and future, 212 influence of, 158 and shock, 24 of society, 261
Citizenship, education for, 246
Civil rights, 46
Civilization, development of, 200
Clusters, 78, 185, 230
Cognitive competence, 191
College attendance, non-academic students, 175
College bound students, 58, 302
Commerce, 88
Commonalities in occupations, 111
Communication, 88, 220, 225, 230 skills, 160
  systems, 178
Community resources, 118, 178, 277
Competence, teachers', 191
Competencies, 220
Comprehensive general shop, 123
Comprehensive high school, 58, 177
Comprehensive program, 64
Computers, and gifted, 166
Conceptualization, in evaluation, 256
Conflict, education and technology, 205
Construction, 88, 100, 111, 221, 225, 232, 243, 249
  in Maine Plan, 129
  programs, 185
  senior high courses in, 93

Consumerism, 23, 257 Content—of problem solving, 273 as reform, 306
Continuity, and education, 205
Contract, individual study, 168
Control, of technology, 209, 211
Controlling, 243
Cooperative education, 172, 179, 230
Correlated Curriculum Program, 170-176
Counselor, career, 173
Crafts, and technology, 202
Creativity, 143, 148
Credentials, 294
Crime, 48
Critique, 287-306
Culture, 35 nature of, 200 of schools, 289
  technological, 217
  and technology, 52, 296
  of work, 293
Curriculum, 57, 59, 62, 238, 250 comprehensive continuum of, 124 cross disciplinary, 178 future, 219
  Maine, 128
Curriculum designer, role of, 148

Decision making, 158, 262
Delphi technique, 164
Democracy, 20, 266, 284
  and technology, 213, 298
Descriptive knowledge, 234
Design, 220
Development, 162
Developmental needs, 68
Developmental studies, 238
Diploma, role of, 295
Disadvantaged, 65, 156
Disciplines—Aristotelian, 233 integration of, 306 of practical knowledge, 237
Dropouts, 29, 71, 73, 173, 291, 302
Drop-out rates, New York City, 175
Drugs, 49

Ecology, 19, 23, 145
Economic opportunity, 18
Economic system, 99, 144 Education, 53 for career systems, 147 citizens participation, 22 competencies produced, 220 content of, 236 failures of, 30 forms of, 144 for future, 33 nature and change, 53, 214 problems, 20 purpose, 72, 218, 263
  social stratification, 304
  and technology, 52, 203
Electrical systems and servicing technology, 252
Electricity-electronics, 98
  in Maine Plan, 129
Empirics, 234
Energy, Maine Plan, 133
Engineering drafting course, 224
Engineers, and scientists, 32
Enrollment—high school, 57
  by curriculum, Ohio, 63 industrial arts in Pittsburgh, 184 Enterprise—as environment, 152 history of economic, 147
Entry level jobs, 248, 295
Environment—control of, 23, 39 for learning experiences, 151 Equality of opportunity, 42, 53, 67
Ergonomics, 144
Esthetics, 234 Ethics, 234 Evaluation, 164, 256, 282 of gifted students, 167
  Maine Plan, 138
  Maryland Plan, 280
  Pittsburgh, 180
Exploration, 84, 111, 173, 179, 224

Facilities, 225, 289
  IACP extension, 256
  Maine Plan, 132
  Maryland Plan, 274, 279
  orchestrated systems, 152
  Pittsburgh, 189
Fact-finding, 164
Famine, 37
Field trips, 102, 118
Finance, of education, 290
Followup study, New York City, 175 Food—and population, 36 and poverty, 41
Foreign language, 62
Formal knowledge, 235

Gaming, 166
General education, 67, 83, 173, 236, 246
General shop, 122

Geography, of poverty, 43
Georgia plan, 217-231
Ghetto, 46
Gifted student, meeting needs of, 156-169
Goals, 304
  CCEM, 75
  individual, 268
  of industrial arts, 80
  Maryland Plan evaluation, 281
  Pittsburgh, 196
  and reality, 294
Golden Age, 210
Goods, 78 division of, 243 production, 25, 88
Government, role of, 21
Graphic communication—Maine Plan, 133
  programs, 185
Group processes, use of, 118, 276
Growth and development, 257 Guidance, 194 from labor organizations, 105

Heroin, 50
High schools, 56-69
History, and cultural change, 36
Honors classes, 61 Human—practices affecting, 144, 241 resources, 42
Human resources, as assets, 32
Humanities, 218, 233 status of, 27
Humanization, nature of, 143
Hunger, 38

IACP (Industrial Arts Curriculum Project), 111 extension, 232-259
Imagination, 143
Individual—differences, 61 role of, 292
  study contract, 169
Individualization—of education, 53
  Maryland Plan, 268
  Pittsburgh, 188
Industrial arts, 67 content areas, 123 curriculum options, 250
  goals, 80
  and orientation, 32
  Pittsburgh goals, 181, 195
Industrial technology, 88, 217, 231, 238, 241
Industrialization, 21
Industry-education cooperation, 108 Industry—focus of, 144
  and industrial arts curricula, 34 Ingenuity, 143
Instruction—materials, 255
  organizing, 256
  strategies for, 253, 275
Instructional materials, Maryland Plan, 278
Instructional strategy, orchestrated systems, 149
Integration, 68
Interdisciplinary approach, Maryland Plan, 270 Interdisciplinary program, 170-176
Interests, using student, 268

Job entry, 248

Knowledge—areas in school curriculum, 236 classifications of, 233 domains of, 234 growth of, 52 heirarchy, 233 of practice, 240 study of body, 246
  technological, 202, 247
  value of, 32
Labor force, Ohio, 63
Labor-industry-education cooperation, 108
Labor, role in education, 105, 292
Lag, of education, 167, 206 Learning, 237 scope and goals in Pittsburgh, 192
Leisure, and education, 218
Liberal education, 246, 248 Life—attitude toward, 210
  and education, 53
  quality of, 42
Loyalty, as goal and society need, 194

Machine, use of, 26
Maine Plan, 121
Malnutrition, 41 Man—ecological concept of, 145 fulfillment, 142 his choices, 214 psychological deprivation, 44
Management objectives, Pittsburgh, 179

Management practices, 241
Manual arts, 157
Manual training, 121, 219
Manufacturing, 88, 98, 100, 112, 185, 220, 225, 230, 232, 243, 249
  in Maine Plan, 128
Maryland Plan, 260-285
Material goods, and industrial technology, 218, 241
Material processing and fabrication, 97, 252
Material utopia, 18
Materials—in Maryland Plan, 278
  practices affecting, 242
Mathematics, 62
Matrices—IACP, 241-245
  CCEM, 76
Meaning, realms of, 234
Measurement, for evaluation, 305
Mechanical systems and servicing technology, 98, 212
Media, use of, 117
Mental health, and social discontent, 44
Methods, 135, 239
Minority groups, 46 Models—career education, 87
  Orchestrated systems, 149
Modular learning units, Pittsburgh, 185
Motivation, 143, 174, 301
Museums, as career education resource, 106

National goals, 21
Natural resources, 89
Natural sciences, 233
Nature, of man, 142
Navigation technology, 201
Needs assessment process, 180
New York City correlated program, 170-176
Non-academic students, program for, 170-176

Objectives—career education vs. industrial arts, 81 of high school, 61 industrial arts junior high school, 221
  Maine, 131
  OVT in Pittsburgh, 178
Occupational industrial arts, 122
Occupational information, 111
Occupational preparation, 110
Occupations, categories of, 223
Operator, education for, 224
Opiates, 49
Opportunity, equality, 20, 67
Orchestrated system, 141-155
Organizing, 243
Orientation, 224 career, 173
  vs. training, 31
Outline, of yearbook, 14
OVT (occupational, vocational, technical) education—compared with Industrial Arts, 183
  Pittsburgh, 177-196

Parents' career studies, 104 Participation—by citizens, 21 range of, 214
Participatory technology, 209
Peace, nature of, 44
Performance—contract, 195
  goals, 303
Perception, in learning, 193
Permissiveness, 22
Persecution, 43
Personal relevance, 263
Personnel practices, 244
Pittsburgh program, 177-197
Planning, 243-244
Pollution, 39
Poor, life of, 42
Population, growth and control, 36 Poverty, 40
  nature of, 42
Power and transportation, in Maine Plan, 129
Practical disciplines, 233, 292
Praxiological knowledge, 234, 235, 239
Prejudice, 45
Preparation, career, 84
Prescriptive knowledge, 235
Problem solving, 158, 162
  as curriculum focus, 263 as curriculum strategy, 261, 271 issues facing man, 260
Process goals, Maryland Plan, 283
Processing, 243
Product management, 96
Production practices, 241
Production systems management, 97
Productive disciplines, 233
Professional societies, in career education, 106
Profit, and human control, 153

Progress, 210 measure of, 211 Projects, 253 group, 268, 276
  use of, 117
Protection, civil, 47
Psycho-motor competence, 158, 191

Quadrant learning pattern, 150

Race, and poverty, 43
Racism, 45, 68
Rationale, of yearbook, 13-15
Reality, and school, 294
Recreational expression, 257
Relevancy, 24, 256, 262, 270, 302, 304 of college, 29 importance of, 143
Research and development, 162, 220, 268 course, 224 ideas for student, 164 as strategy, 277
  as teaching strategy, 161 technology, 251
Resource unit, 124
Resources—managing, 40
  use of, 38
Respect, for individual, 192
Role playing, 269

Salable skills, 219
  Pittsburgh, 188
Scheduling, Pittsburgh, 184 Schools—challenge of technology, 51 problems facing, 290 reality of, 288
  role in society, 288 and societal forces, 35-54
  value of, 290
Science, 218 and engineering, 33 emphasis on, 60 teaching of, 62
Scientific Method, 143
Scientific societies, in career education, 106
Secondary schools, 56-69
Segregation, 45
Self-actualization, elements of, 76
Self assessment, 111
Self concept, 115, 289
Seminars, student, 275
Senses, use of, 116
Sensitivity, to individuals, 193
Serendipity, of life, 291
Services, 78, 230
  in Maine Plan, 129
  in society, 25
Sex, and poverty, 43
Shock, future, 24
Shop teacher, 59
Simulation, 166 work experiences, 221
Site management, 93
Skills, 306
  of human behavior, 219
  Maryland Plan, 280, 283
  of social process, 272 training, 74 of work place, 26
Social problems, 238 in content strategy, 271
Social psychological growth, 257
Social purpose, 212
Social relevance, 263
Social sciences, 233
Socialization, effect of schools, 68
Societal forces, and schools, 35-54 Society—justice in, 20 pluralistic, 202 problems of, 263 school role in current issues, 68 and students, 31
Special abilities, 116
Special education, 224
Spiral, career education as, 113
Sputnik, influence on education, 60
Staff participation, 114
Staffing, differentiated, 62
Status, of school subjects, 27 Strategy—of instruction, 253 instructional (Maine), 135
  Maryland Plan, 275
Strategy system models, Orchestrated systems, 149
Structure management, 95
Structure production, 95
Student clubs, for career education, 105
Student planning, 115
Students—considerations of, 142, 302
  and education, 22
  gifted, 160
  as individuals, 293 life of, 291 nature of high school, 57 place of, 291
  and world of work, 287
Symbolics, 234, 238
Synnoetics, 234

Synoptics, 234 Systems—education as, 292
  technology and social, 213

Talents, and education, 151
Task forces, Pittsburgh, 180 Teacher—in Pittsburgh program, 189 role with gifted, 161
Team teaching, 62
  New York City, 172
Technical high school, 60
Technical report, 164
Technological literacy, 257
Technological societies, in career education, 106 Technology, 218
  alienation from, 207 applied to problems, 260-285 cap and lower case, 207 characteristics, 201 culture of, 296
  in culture, 201 cure for, 30
  as discipline, 219 in education, 52, 62 generations of, 265 and industry, in society, 121 and knowledge, 51 pace of, 24
  participatory, 18 and praxiology, 240 role in problem-solving, 264 support for, 202 as system, 240
  as tool of expression, 204 use and control, 211 variable in society, 199 and work world, 221
Themes, of Maine units, 126
Theoretical disciplines, 233
Theories, classes of, 234
Third Industrial Revolution, 143
Time, in OVT, 184 Tools—access to, 199-216 and choices, 211 and man's evolution, 217 and/of technology, 204, 208
Trade training, 219
Transportation, 88, 221 as problem, 271
  programs, 185
Trust, of teacher, 192

Unemployment, 30
Unit approach, 268
  in Maine Plan (advanced), 124, 134, 135
  Maryland Plan, 275
  Pittsburgh, 185
Unit plan guide, 127
Urbanization, 25, 52
Utilities installation and servicing, 96

Value exemplars, 238 Value—of students, 291 of system elements, 145 of U.S., 288
Vestibule labs, 190
Violence, 47
Vocational classes, early, 59
Vocational education—and industrial arts, 32, 246
  role and relationships, 248
  vs. general education, 72
  skill centers, 64
Vocational high school, 60
Vocational program, area, 65

War, societal problem, 43
Wealth, societal, 20 Work—conditions of, 295 culture of, 293
  definition, 189 divisions of, 223
  and education, 73
  experience, 103 observation of, 104
  preparation for, 83
  reality of, 288
  world of, 29, 287
Work world, education includes, 221
Work-study, 179, 230
Workers, nature of, 90
Workplace, and educational development, 146